

ACADEMIC PROBATION/SUSPENSION

Students must maintain a cumulative g.p.a. of 2.0 to achieve academic good standing. Failure to maintain a cumulative 2.0 g.p.a. will result in the student being placed on academic probation. If the grade level performance does not improve within the next semester, the student may be placed on suspension for a period of one regular semester. After one regular semester, the student may be eligible for readmission on academic probation. A student will move out of probation when the cumulative g.p.a. is above 2.0. Students may receive approval from the Vice Chancellor for Academics to retake failed courses during a summer term to improve their g.p.a. After 2 semesters of readmission on academic probation, if the student fails to make improvement the student will re-enter academic suspension.

If a concurrent student enters probation, the student may receive approval from the Vice Chancellor of Academics to retake D or F courses during a probationary period in order to improve the g.p.a. and exit suspension status. The probation period will not extend over two semesters for concurrent students. If approved, students must pay full price for course retakes and are not eligible for the concurrent discount. If a concurrent student enters suspension as a secondary student, the student will enter post-secondary on a probationary status.

Some acceptance-based programs require a “C” or better in order to progress in the program of study. Failure to maintain required average may result in program dismissal.

Students on probation or those returning from suspension must work with a success coach from Student Services. The success coach will work closely with the student, advisor, and instructors to develop a plan to support the student and increase the opportunity for success. Plans of action may vary from student to student and may include things such as tutoring sessions, visits to the Student Success Center, meetings with advisor, etc.

Students on suspension or probation from another institution must follow the same guidelines detailed above.

To appeal an academic probation or suspension, the student must submit a typed request similar to that of a formal grade grievance to the Vice Chancellor for Academic Services.
